Overview of transactions

Keith Rumble

The header features a vertical stack of four circular images: a hand holding a globe, a man in a white shirt, a group of people, and a globe.

Two-tier empowerment structure

- Anchor empowerment partner - RBR
 - RBR will gain a direct holding of approximately 9% in Implats
 - Transaction includes Local Economic Development Trust with the primary objective of uplifting local communities and women in particular
- Employee Share Ownership Programme (ESOP) - 3% holding in Implats

4

A comprehensive and broad-based BEE transaction

- 26.5% BEE ownership for Impala
- financially sustainable
 - high degree of certainty on final outcome
- truly broad-based
 - benefits 300,000 RBN members
 - particular focus on women
 - includes 28,304 Implats employees

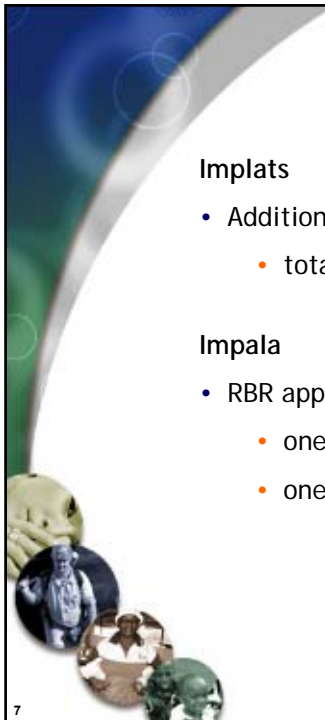

Strategically aligned

5

RBR - our anchor BEE partner

- Rigorous selection process
 - pre-determined criteria
- RBR achieved highest score
- Implats and RBR have long-term, historical relationship:
 - major shareholder (1 million shares)
 - royalty agreement
 - Impala lease area co-operation

6

RBR board representation

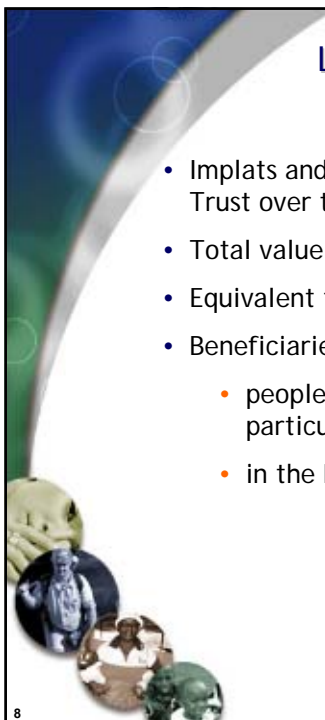

Implats

- Additional RBR nominee
 - total rises to two

Impala

- RBR appoints three of 10 board members
 - one to be a black woman
 - one to be nominated Deputy Chairman

7

Local Economic Development Trust (LED)

- Implats and the RBR to contribute equally to the Trust over the period of transaction
- Total value of Trust of R340 million
- Equivalent to 10% of anchor empowerment transaction
- Beneficiaries:
 - people living in vicinity of Impala lease area, particularly women
 - in the Bojanala region

8

Bojanala Platinum District

9

Objectives of LED trust

- To promote, in the areas surrounding the Impala lease area and the Bojanala region:
 - entrepreneurial and SMME development
 - employment opportunities
 - education, training, sporting initiatives
 - healthcare and welfare
- Board of Trustees guided by a defined trust deed

10

Empowerment of women

- Women's focus by the LED Trust
 - at least 50% of Trust's value (R170 million) to be under control of women
 - for initiatives aimed at the advancement and empowerment of women in the area
 - Women trustees
- RBR woman appointee to Impala board

11

Employee Share Ownership Scheme (ESOP)

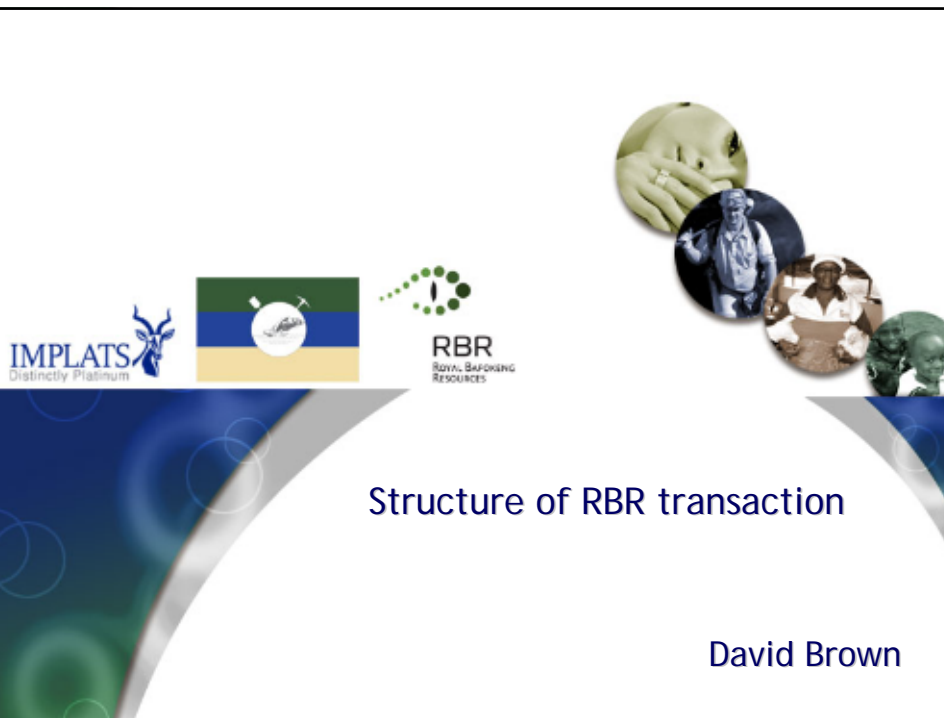

- Implats makes capital contribution to ESOP trust
 - R1.8 billion to purchase 2.05 million (3%) Implats shares - equivalent to 25% of total transaction
- 28,304 eligible employees (Patterson A,B and C grades) including 26,962 HDSA employees
- Eligible employees benefit from capital appreciation over 10 years, but with full voting rights from day one
- Net proceeds (after capital contribution repayment to Implats and tax) to be paid equally to all eligible employees

12

Benefits of ESOP

- Eligible employees to benefit from the total of Implats' assets
- Increases broad-based participation
- Employee loyalty, retention

A decorative graphic at the top of the slide features a series of overlapping circular images: a hand holding a globe, a man in a suit, a group of people, and a globe. Below these images are three logos: IMPLATS Distinctly Platinum (with a blue stag head), a flag with green, blue, and yellow horizontal stripes and a white circle containing a globe, and RBR (Rural, Beyond, Resources) with a green dotted circle logo.

Structure of RBR transaction

David Brown

Implats' current group structure

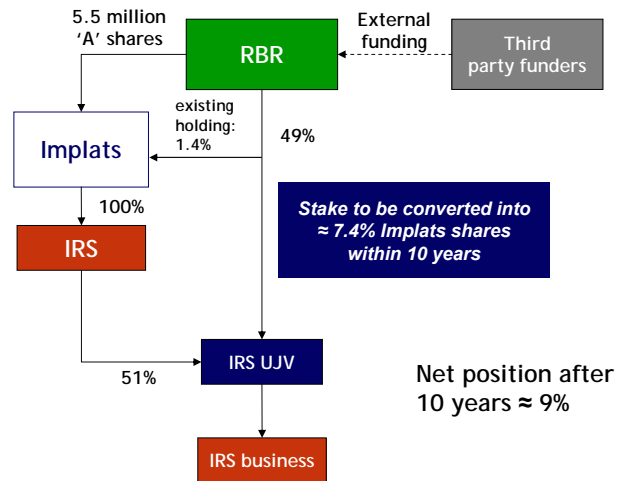

15

Impala Refining Services (IRS)

- Engaged in smelting and refining third party material from:
 - Toll refining activities (A-1 Specialized Services and Supplies) - largest recycler of autocatalysts in the world
 - Purchase of concentrate and matte from managed operations (Marula, Mimosa, Zimplats)
 - Purchase of concentrates from independent, non-controlled investments (Kroondal, Marikana, Everest, Crocodile River)
- Use existing infrastructure and capacity within the group - essentially an accounting entity
- Access to substantial and relatively stable cash flows

16

Structure of RBR transaction

17

Conversion requirement

- RBR has right to convert between years 2 and 10; Implats has the right to call for conversion in year 10
- RBR converts IRS interest to Implats shares - Conversion Shares

Conversion Shares = $\frac{\text{Fair market value of 49\% of IRS at time of conversion}}{\text{60-day VWAP on date of conversion at a discount of 22.5\%}}$

- RBR entitled to subscribe for further Implats shares - Top-up Shares
 - Top-up Shares = 5.5 million less the Conversion Shares
 - subscribed for at 60-day VWAP on date of conversion at a discount of 25%

18

Final outcome

- Implats to repurchase and cancel 'A' shares at original subscription price
- 5.5 million ordinary Implats shares equivalent to approximately 7.4% of Implats (fully diluted basis) in 10 years
- RBR's current 1 million shares equivalent to approx 1.4% of Implats (fully diluted basis) in 10 years
- RBR will have approximately 9% in Implats (on a fully diluted basis)

19

Financial and cash flow effects

- Cash inflow of R3.4 billion
- Impact on headline earnings per share
 - interest income
 - finance charge (minority expense)
 - BEE charge
 - BEE compensation charge
 - Local economic development trust commitments
 - ESOP

20

RBN's 2020 vision

Key objective is self-sufficiency by 2020

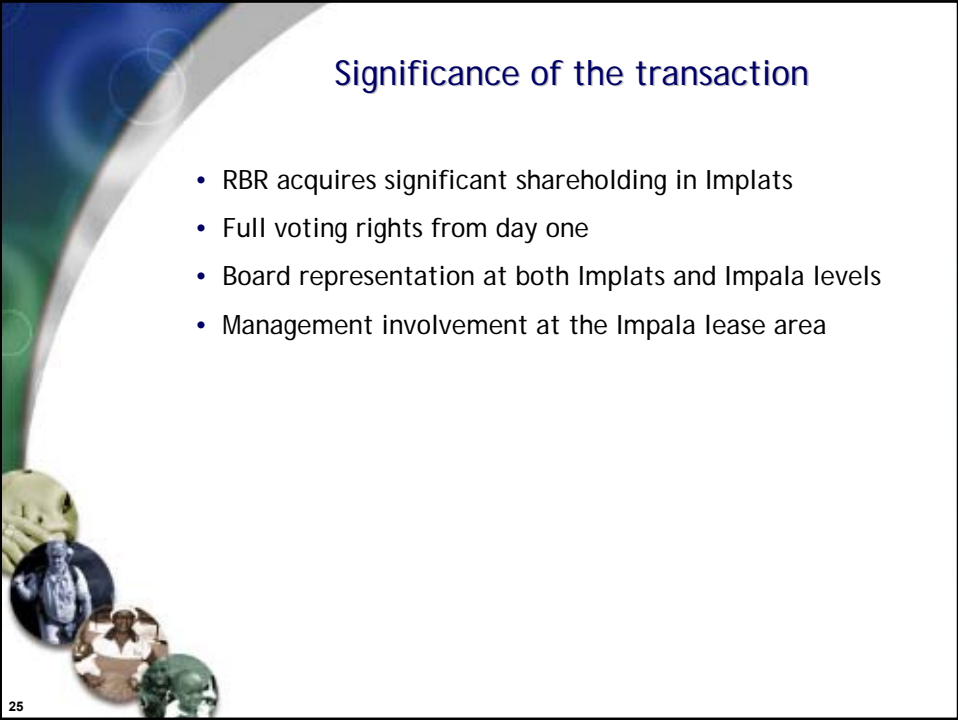

- Self-sufficiency means:
 - every Mofokeng should be either employed, employable; or have capacity to create jobs
- Capacity:
 - derive economic benefits from use of RBN land

23

RBN's relationship with Implats

- Long-standing
- The RBN derives an annual royalty from Impala for the use of land and mineral rights
- Significant numbers of Bafokeng work at Impala mines
- Adds to imperative for developing a mutually beneficial relationship going forward

24

Significance of the transaction

- RBR acquires significant shareholding in Implats
- Full voting rights from day one
- Board representation at both Implats and Impala levels
- Management involvement at the Impala lease area

25

RBR's strategic imperatives achieved

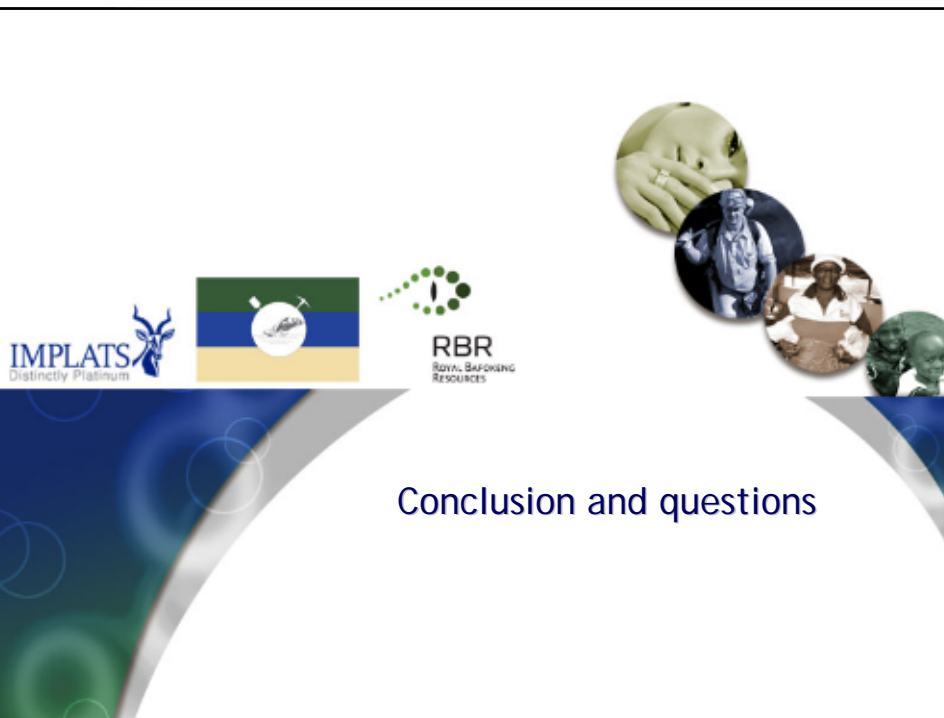

- Long-standing relationship cemented
- Solid 'stepping stone' (IRS/UJV participation)
- Sustainable equity participation in Implats
- Meaningful management participation in Implats and Impala
- Enhanced role in Rustenburg/Bojanala community development and Impala

26

Benefits of the transaction structure

- Constitutes an 'asset' deal
- Provides RBR with wider exposure to operational value chain
- UJV participation creates more equity for RBR in Implats (upon conversion) with less risk
- Strong, tax-efficient cash flows
- Sustainability
- Increased local economic investment for the upliftment of our communities
 - R340 million over 10 years
