FURTHER UPDATE FOLLOWING IMPALA RUSTENBURG 11 SHAFT INCIDENT

Johannesburg, 29 November 2023 – It is with deep sadness and regret Impala Platinum Holdings Limited (Implats) reports that an employee, who was hospitalised following the accident at Impala Rustenburg's 11 Shaft on Monday 27 November 2023, has died. Implats has offered its condolences to and remains in close contact with his family.

Of the 86 employees involved in the accident, 74 remain in hospital. Today's fatality brings to 12 the total number of employees who have died due to the 11 Shaft accident.

In line with the Group's long-running We Care programme, Implats will provide ongoing support to the families of the deceased and has set aside funds to assist with their funerals. In addition to standard Company funding, the Group will also financially support the children of our late colleagues, from birth through to the completion of their tertiary studies.

Production remained suspended across the entire Impala Rustenburg mining complex for a second day today, to allow for mourning, and to conduct precautionary internal and third-party audits on the conveyance and winding systems at every shaft.

Production at 11 Shaft and 11C Shaft will remain suspended while internal investigations and inquiries into the accident are completed, remedial actions and repairs are undertaken and until regulatory approval is granted for the resumption of production. Production at all other Impala Rustenburg shafts will resume on Thursday, 30 November 2023.

Implats will continue to provide updates as and when new information becomes available.
